A CONJURATION CASE.

Feliz Fountain Thought to Break a Spell by Throwing Stones. William Dodson and Felix Fountain are col-that he was again to be put under a spell.

He asked William to stop burning that "con-uration mixture," the fumes of which he realized were putting another spell on him, and he thought that neighbor William would not stop. How to break the spell was something that he wanted to know and he wanted to know it SEE OUR LINE of spring overcoats. Our badly. The doctor, he said, could account for the swelling in his leg in no way other than "conjuration" and so the only way he knew of to break the spell was to disable the "conjure doctor." which he did by throw-ing stones at him. The result was that Felix got arrested and Judge Miller heard the case yesterday.

He disposed of it by telling Felix that the conjure business was all imagination and took his personal bonds to go home and keep the peace toward his neighbor.

A BAKER'S DOZEN.

The Number of Prisoners Who Visited Judge Miller This Morning. There was a baker's dozen in the toils at the Police Court this morning.

There was a colored man in the party who answered the name of Turner Freeman, and from the nature of the charge against him the judge concluded that he was drunk.

"But he wasn't," said Policeman Smith. was as sober as a judge. If he had been under the influence of liquor I would have excused appearing. Wm. Waters and Joseph Young were charged with being suspicious persons, it being allege that they were found loitering about stores of Pennsylvania avenue southeast. Ninety days.

Mary Benwell, an aged woman, plead guilty to a charge of vagrancy in order to get a home.

She was given sixty days.

Edward Bocket was tried for making more noise than an ordinary Fourth of July fire-cracker. He made no defense and was fined $5. A TOO SPIRITED HORSE.

Jos. Smith, a seventeen-year-old colored boy, drives a spirited horse, was accused of fast driving, and he admitted his guilt. "That same horse ran away the other day," said Adams, "and broke its owner's leg." "Is that the kind of horse that you were driving through the public streets?" asked Judge Miller.

"les, sir," was his reply.

"Well, I'll just let you know right now," said the judge, "that you can't drive such an animal through the public streets and endanger the lives of pedestrians."

A fine of $10 or 30 days was imposed.

A fine of $10 or 30 days was imposed.

Wm. Woodward and John Jennings were not in the procession, for that is a luxury that none but the poor have to enjoy. They are farmers and when arrested for disorderly conduct they left $5 collateral for their appearance. When their names were called they did not respond and their money was forfeited.

Joseph Mahoney, who was charged with throwing missiles on the street, did not appear, and his collateral was also forfeited.

Eddie Dorster, a small colored boy, was charged with misbehavior at St. Paul's Church, but it turned out to be a case of mistaken identity and the charge against him was dismissed.
Wm. Hawkins failed to appear and claim his collateral and it was turned into the treasury.
Cyrus Mercer gave a theatrical performance at Green's Hall last night without a license, for which he was required to deposit $10 collateral which was forfeited.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given at Willard's Hall this evening for the benefit of the Humane Society by the Weightman Band of Mercy-an organization composed of over 200 school children of all ages. They will be assisted by a number of Indicted by the Grand Jury.

The grand jury today reported indictments against Benjamin Kerby, Frederick Niedfeldt, Wm. Madison, William Jackson, William L. Riley, Abraham Kroon, George Manns, Michael J. O'Connor, Wm. H. Young, William Mc-Carthy, John Potter, John Potter, jr., William Armistead, Price Stewart, Scott Thompson, and John Nelson, John Hegmann otherwise John Hedgeman, all for violating the policy law, and Chas. F. Yates, for housebreaking.

Last evening, at 7:10 o'clock, a street car collision took place at the intersection of New York avenue and 4th street northwest, electric car No. 7 of the Eckington road going westward striking and knocking Belt Line car No. 32, bound south, off the track. The latter was bound south, off the track. The latter was turned over on the side and the passengers badly shaken up, Mrs. Wm. Moseley of 417 L street and Wm. Gross of 907 11th street being bruised. The Belt Line car took fire from the overturned lamp, but Officers Kilfoyle and Lightfoot extinguished the flames.

Judge James, who has been sick for a week. was at the court house today, as also Judge Hagner, who has recovered. Judge Cox is getting better, and expects to be out the early part of the week.

esting Exercises at the Eleventh An nual Reunion of the Association. The eleventh annual reunion of the Alum Association of Georgetown University was held yesterday evening at the college. A large number of the graduates in arts, science, law and medicine met in Gaston Hall, where they listened to an oration by Hon. F. C. Zegarra, the Peruvian minister, upon the subject of "International Arbitration." It was an extremely interesting effort and advocated the settlement of disputes betweeen nations, particularly those of the American continent, by peaceful In regard to the requests that are made at arbitration instead of warlike demonstrations.

Mr. Zegarra is a graduate of the class of 1864.

A business meeting was then held in Coleman Hall, at which the following named officers were elected: President, Mr. Richard F. Clarke, LL.D., of New York: first vice president, Hon. F. C. Zegarra, LL.D., of Peru; second vice president, Tallmadge A. Lambert, A. M., of District of Columbia; third vice president, Hon. Nathan Goff, LL.D., of West Virginia; fourth vice president, E. Carroll Morgan, M. D., of the District of Columbia; fifth vice president, James E. Washington, A. M., of Tennessee; secretary, E. D. F. Brady, A. M., of the District of Columbia; treasurer, F. O. St. Clair, M. D., of the District of Columbia; executive committee, Rev. Dr. J. Havens Richards, ex officio; Francis J. Kleckhoefer, A. M.; Richard S. Hill, M. D.; D. O'C. Callaghan, A. M., and F. O. THE BANQUET. Then came the banquet, which was held in The afternoon session was devoted to a review of the work of the Conference Home Missionary Society. In the evening the anniversary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society was observed, Rev. S. Reese Murray of this city making the address.

The called the banquet, which was held in the college refectory. The newly elected president, Mr. Richard F. Clarke, sat in the center of the table at the west end of the room, with Senor Zegarra on his right and the remaining alumni occupied the long tables that ran at right and Senor Zegarra on his right and Mr. Daniel A. Boone on his left, and the remaining alumni occupied the long tables that ran at right angles with that. The floral decorations were abundant and tasteful. The menu was all that could be desired, and on the card each course was emphasized by happy quotations from the most distinguished poets.

When the time for speech-making arrived Col. Chas. O'B. Cowardin of the Richmond Dispatch, who acted as to extraoster introduced.

william Dodson and Felix Fountain are colored men whose ages have reached more than three score years, and they are next door neighbors. Felix believes in "conjuration" but William doesn't. Felix firmly believed that neighbor William put a spell on him a year ago and caused his leg to swell double its normal size and three days ago he had reason to believe that he was again to be put under a spell.

Col. Chas. O'B. Cowardin of the Richmond Disputch, who acted as toastmaster, introduced each of the speakers in an exceedingly pleasant manner. making many witty allusions, which put all in the best of humor. Hon. Richard F. Clarke responded to the toast of "The Alumni;" Rev. J. Havens Richards, president of the university, was eloquent in his remarks in behalf of "The Faculty of the University." Mr. C. C. Magruder gave his views upon "University Training as a gave his views upon "University Training as a Force in Politics;" Mr. Daniel A. Boone gave some interesting reminiscences in speaking to "The Past and Present;" Mr. John G. Ager spoke upon "Afbitration;" Mr. George E. Hamilton upon "The Law;" Surgeon General Hamilton upon "Medicine," and Mr. Thomas Kearney of the class of 1891 developed considerable ability as a speaker in his remarks upon the present he present. LETTERS OF REGRET.

The secretary, Mr. E. D. F. Brady, during the banquet announced the receipt of letters expressing regret at their inability to attend from ex-Senator Kernan of New York, Rt. Rev. Mgr. T. S. The secretary likewise read letters from two expressions of the university Pers.

The secretary likewise read letters from two ex-presidents of the university, Rev. P. F. Healy, S. J., and Rev. Jas. A. Doonan, S.J., sending greeting. Also a cablegram from Paris from Hon. James V. Coleman, '69, ex-president of the society, and a telegram from Hon. W. M. Smith, '53, president of select council of Philadelphia. The senior class of the university were invited guests at the banquet, and invitations were also extended to the faculties of the law and medical departments.

The festivities closed by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by the entire company, and the eleventh reunion was voted by those present to have been the best that the alumni had enjoyed since the association was formed. THOSE PRESENT.

Some of those present were: Daniel A. Boone, Wm. A. Hammond and Robert A. Jamison of Baltimore; C. C. Magruder of Upper Marlboro, Jas. W. McCarrick of Norfolk, Va., Chas. O'B. HE WAS A SLUGGER Struck His Father, His Sister and the Girl He Was Engaged to.

Joseph Samuel Ford is twenty-one years old and until a few weeks ago he lived with his parents on Dunbarton street in Georgetown. His parents moved from there to G street southwest. Before leaving Georgetown he made a record for himself as a slugger and after reaching South Washington he did not get much better. He soon became acquainted with Mary Norbeck's daughter, and has been visiting the house, but his conduct was such that Mrs. Norbeck had him arrested. When they reached the Police Court this morning his prospective mother-in-law had forgiven him and he was exonerated of the charge she made against him, but his father and sister were present and they had not forgiven him. His sister Florence is only sixteen years old, and she charged that her brother not only struck her with his fist, but he also struck her with a cowhide. The father complained that Sam also struck him with his fist.

when the sister was assaulted she ran away from the house and has been in the Christian Home ever since. She also said that others in the family ill-treated her.

Sam admitted that he had not done right and claimed that his mother was partly responsible.

A largely attended musical and literary enertainment for the benefit of the Eastern Dispensary was given last night by the lady managers in the parlor of their president, Mrs. D.

$87,050.08 in claims cost $178,373.68 in exponses—i.e., it cost more than $2 to pay $1; that in order to show not assets $1,965.24 greater at the close of the year than at the beginning, it was necessary to hold back more than $10,000 from the secretary's salary until after January 1; that among the assets are reckoned assessments not yet paid, amounting to $101,-139.07, or decidedly more than half the total assessments paid during 1890; that more policies were forfeited during the year than the total membership at the beginning of the year; that nearly half as many losses, $39,312.49, are left unpaid at the end of the year as the total number paid during the year and that more than half of these are resisted. A comparison with the report of the year before shows further: Increase in amount of losses resisted. $9,635.71: increase in total amount of losses unpaid, $22,334.29.—New York Daily Commercial Bulletin, Feb. 24, 1891.

Now Is THE TIME

TO PURIFY YOUR BLOOD

And fortify your system against the debilitating effects of spring weather. At no other season is the hitter taste in the mouth more prominent, the breath so offensive, the drowsy dizziness so frequent or that extreme tired feeling so prevalent. Hood's Sarsaparille is just the medicine to build up the system, purify the blood, cure biliousness and headache, overcome that tired feeling and create a good appetite. It is the

SPRING WEDICINE

"I take Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it the best medicine for the blood I ever tried. Large quantities of it are sold in this vicinity. As a blood medicine and spring tonic it stands shead of all others." H. N. PHILLIPS, Editor Sentinel-Advertiser, Hope Valley,

"My wife suffered from sick headache and neuralgia.

After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla she was much relieved." W. R. BABB, Wilmington, Ohio. LOSS OF APPETITE

"Having been troubled with dyspepsia, loss of appe tite and a feeling of no ambition to work I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I purchased one bottle, and feeling benefit therefrom bought two more and am now entirely cured. I shall always keep Hood's Sarsapartila in my house, as I think it a good all-round family medicine."
